FLORALA AND ELBA will be football foes this Friday night. It will be Elba's homecoming game and they will really be playing to win that game. But Florala is not going to be sitting on their list and you can bet the game this week will be one worth seeing. If the weather clears up, Florala will turn out strong in Elba and there is a possibility that it will be Elba's biggest game receipt.

Let me warn you. Get your tickets in advance or you will be disappointed. The game is being held at 6 o'clock or you'll find yourself standing in a line that extends some distance from the gates and the kick-off will already have been when you do finally get in. Tickets will be sold in advance at several places in town and I'd suggest that you get them before going to the stadium. Then you can go around the crowd line and walk right on in. Drug stores will be open until about six or somewhere about that time but most places close at 5:30 P. M.

MAYBE I'm not quite normal but I have never been an admirer of Billy Graham. He says some very good things but many times I get the impression that what he then does is not for the benefit of the people, spiritually or for their welfare.

But in an article Sunday excerpts from the book "World Affair," he said is good though the way he interprets it could be quite different from mine. We'll take it for the exact way he says it. Graham said, "Our world is on fire, and man without God will never be able to control the flames. The fires of passion, greed, hate, and lust are sweeping the world." He mentioned the current population explosion which baffles our finest minds and that the world now faces a biological problem as well as watching the serviceman plug in a cord and "hand you a bill." It happened to me before the 90 days were up so I wasn't handed a bill but I was just as embarrassed as if he had.

DO YOU ever talk to yourself while you work. Housewives are told it's a great way to shake the homemaker's blues. It helps in the business firm, also. "There you are, with the world on your shoulders, surrounded by stacks of work, in our place it's surrounded with piles of copy that has to be waded through, ads to be set, the copy to be set and pasted in, the paper printed and gotten in the mails before the deadline or else face hundreds of people who want to know why they failed to get their paper. During three days here at my work you can feel disaster closing in on you. I have learned it does no good to grumble, but it does help to do some musing. "Children rebel against their parents until many parents are actually afraid of their children. Young people rebel against their teachers. University students rebel against administrative authorities. There is an organized attempt to downgrade the policeman, to make fun of him and despise him. All this is part of a general trend that is making us feel that we are living in a time of chaos."

I agree with Billy Graham that values are crumbling. An ARTICLE recently entitled "It makes a housewife feel a little on the stupid side" was "Did you ever look your keys inside the car and have to crack a window to get inside?" Another is calling the appliance and learn that the only reason it isn't working is that it isn't plugged in. That can just as well apply to people in business during this chaotic operation. The first thing the serviceman looks for "Is the machine plugged in?" I have had that to happen since we converted over to these electrical machines but that only happens to a person once. You'll never again be embarrassed by with us here at the news office and the day the paper must be completed was really rough but we did make it eventually. Two of us did the work originally done by six people. It can be done but even talking to yourself does not help much. It takes rolling up your sleeves and digging in and actually working for long hours. But even then there is much to be thankful for, being able to get the paper in the mails on time is a consoling thing even if it is full of errors and such.

THE SUCCESSION bill, if passed to be put before the people, is approved, will affect seven state offices other than the governor's office. Those who cannot run for a second consecutive term are Lieutenant Governor, Attorney General, Superintendent of Education, Secretary of State, Auditor and State Treasurer.

Really I think if the governor and these other office holders were on letter press and at this special session know that a consecutive term in the Legislature should not be allowed to run for a second consecutive term. What's good for or not good for the goose is good for or not good for the gander. I think that some of those members of the legislature who are beating their brains out at this special session know that a consecutive term in the Legislature should not be allowed to run for a second consecutive term. What's good for or not good for the goose is good for or not good for the gander.

NEVER BE AFRAID TO GO TO A DENTIST.

Such fears are old fashioned. They date back to the long past time when people so neglected their teeth that they waited till they were hopelessly decayed and had to be extracted.

NOW WISE PEOPLE PROTECT THEIR TEETH.

From childhood on, children are taken to a dentist regularly. New "miracle" drugs prevent infection. Modern dental techniques have as their ultimate purpose to save teeth, not extract them.

DENTISTS CAN WRITE PRESCRIPTIONS.

They often prescribe medicines to soothe the anxiety of a nervous patient, prevent pain or to be used for the treatment of dental ailments.

REGULAR DENTAL CHECK-UPS ARE NEEDED.

Otherwise cavities become more troublesome and increase in size. As one gets older, receding gums can create problems. Follow your dentist's advice about how often your teeth should be cleaned and checked.

WE STOCK ALL DENTAL AIDS.

Whether your dentist specifies a particular medicine, a dental preparation, or a special type of tooth brush, depend on us to have it waiting for your regular or emergency need.

ary medical insurance program is being sent along with the application.

Mr. Scott cautioned beneficiaries not to become upset if they don't get their applications in the first few mailings. All will be mailed in plenty of time to be returned before March 31, the last day of the first general enrollment period.

The mailings are being made on a regular schedule based on the last digit of a beneficiary's claim number. This means, Mr. Scott continued, that a husband and wife may receive their applications at different times if the wife's benefits are based on her own work.

Also, because of the scheduling, next-door neighbors probably will get their applications at different times.

Another problem that has arisen, Mr. Scott added, is that some husbands and wives are both signing the same enrollment card. Each beneficiary will get his own card in the mail and should not use someone else's card.

People who have questions about health inurance for the aged should get in touch with the Dothan Oates Street. The telephone number is 794-3161.

BONNEVILLE CONVERTIBLE

The tiger scores again!

It's dramatically fresh and new, but still very, very Pontiac. That's written all over it, from the no-doubt-about-it new front end to the trimly tailored rear. (Did you think for one minute that we'd leave out the unique Pontiac styling character you like so well? Never!)

Another nice thing about the '66 Pontiacs is that there are more of them—3 new super-sumptuous Broughams and 4 Venturas. And, of course, for you other Pontiac lovers we've got a bright new Grand Prix, new Catalinas, new Star Chief Executives—all with new Wide-Track ride and improved cat-quick handling. But you'll discover those things when you slip behind the wheel and turn a new '66 tiger loose. Wide-Track Pontiac/'66

You're looking at the newest thing in tigers. Sleek, lean-muscled new style. New power that starts with a revolutionary new kind of six and ranges through four V-8's. Crisp curves shape the new silhouette, and the sports coupe sports a smartly recessed rear window.

Pontiac's revolutionary overhead cam six acts more like a V-8, looks like no six you ever saw, and still remembers that saving is what six buyers buy sixes for. Delivers 165 hp (or you can specify 360 hp in the GTO. See all the '66 tigers in version). And it's standard on all Tempests, tiger country today. Wide-Track Pontiac/'66

Come to tiger country. See all the Wide-Track tigers at your Pontiac dealer.

SHRUB PLANTING
Early planted shrubs become well established before severe cold weather. The root system continues to grow after the foliage becomes dormant. New roots help anchor the plant in the soil. This month is an excellent time to get started planting new shrubs. Nurseries and garden centers will be stocked with good quality plants.

SOIL TESTING
Doctor Walter Sowell, our soils specialist at Auburn, is attending the Enterprise Junior College and is majoring in Wildlife. John stopped by the office between classes and told me that he plans to complete two years of college work here and then enroll in the school of agriculture at Auburn to receive his degree in Wildlife Management. Hundreds of Coffee County rural boys and girls, and those in towns also, have the opportunity to pursue advanced study.

FRUIT TREES
Doctor States McCarter of our Auburn staff gives this advice on cleaning around fruit trees to reduce disease organisms: (1) Remove all dried fruit from the tree and destroy; (2) Rake and destroy or turn under fruit remaining on the ground; (3) Remove and burn all diseased and dead wood. Apply tree wound dressing when large limbs are removed.

I believe our farm income in Coffee County will continue to increase in proportion to the extent that our farmers put research findings to use. Soil testing is a means to add precision to lime and fertilizer needs.

ASSISTANCE
We will be happy to help fill in the form that goes with each soil sample sent to Auburn. A few days ago someone mentioned to me that more assistance on our part in filling in the information sheet would encourage more testing. Call on us at our Enterprise or Elba office.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK
Fires represent failure. Every 80 minutes a person, most frequently a child or elderly person dies in a fire. Fire Prevention Week is a time to recognize this fact, and to act by removing hazards and reforming habits.
